ISS JOINS GLASS LEWIS AND EGAN-JONES IN RECOMMENDING THAT RCM STOCKHOLDERS REJECT LEGION'S BOARD NOMINEE BRADLEY VIZI

ISS CALLS RCM'S HIGHLY-QUALIFIED NOMINEE MICHAEL FRANKEL A MORE COMPELLING NOMINEE THAN BRADLEY VIZI

Pennsauken, NJ – November 25, 2013 -- RCM Technologies, Inc. (NasdaqGM: RCMT), a premier provider of business and technology solutions designed to enhance and maximize the operational performance of its customers through the adaptation and deployment of advanced information technology, engineering and specialty healthcare services, today announced that ISS Proxy Advisory Services has issued a recommendation to its clients that stockholders withhold their votes for dissident candidate Bradley S. Vizi, a handpicked nominee of the Legion Group, for election to RCM's Board of Directors at the Company's Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on December 5, 2013. In its report, ISS indicated that, between Michael E.S. Frankel, one of the two highly-qualified nominees recommended by the RCM Board, and the Legion Group's Mr. Vizi, ISS believes that Mr. Frankel is the more "compelling" nominee for election to the RCM Board.

Last week, Glass Lewis & Co. and Egan-Jones Proxy Services, two other leading independent proxy advisory firms, recommended that stockholders reject both of the Legion Group's nominees, including Mr. Vizi, and vote the WHITE proxy card to elect both of RCM's highly-qualified and very experienced nominees. As such, between Mr. Vizi and Mr. Frankel, all three leading independent proxy advisory firms have indicated that Mr. Frankel is the preferred candidate for election to the RCM Board. In its report recommending that stockholders vote the WHITE proxy card in favor of the election of Mr. Frankel, Egan-Jones took note of "Mr. Vizi's apparent lack of public company board or public company management experience." Egan-Jones further indicated that it believes that "voting FOR the management ballot and the Company's nominees is in the best interest of the Company and its stockholders" and that the election of the RCM Board's nominees will "enable the Company to continue to build on its strong record of increasing stockholder value."

If stockholders, adhering to the preference of the three leading proxy advisory firms that Michael Frankel belongs on the RCM Board, vote the WHITE proxy card to elect Michael E.S. Frankel, Mr. Frankel would bring to the RCM Board almost two decades of experience serving as an advisor or executive for some of the country's most prominent public and private companies in areas such as strategic planning, corporate development, mergers and acquisitions and finance as well as extensive experience in corporate governance gained as a public company board member and a nominating and governance committee chair. Mr. Frankel's impressive resume includes experience at some of the country's most prestigious and well-known firms, including serving as an M&A attorney at Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, an M&A investment banker at Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith, Inc., and a corporate development executive at G.E. Capital.

Leon Kopyt, RCM's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer commented, "We are very pleased that all three leading independent proxy advisory firms, after carefully reviewing the alternatives and the arguments made by the Legion Group, and comparing Michael Frankel's impressive qualifications and experience with that of Bradley S. Vizi have all indicated their preference for Michael Frankel to be elected to the RCM Board."

RCM continues to believe that Mr. Vizi does not have the appropriate qualifications for serving as a director of RCM and that his election would jeopardize the substantial progress that RCM has been making to position itself for long-term growth, future profitability, market leadership and increasing returns for investors. The RCM Board also does not believe that Mr. Vizi will be able to contribute in any meaningful respect to the ongoing corporate governance improvements in which the RCM Board has been actively engaged. Among other concerns with Mr. Vizi are the following:

- Mr. Vizi has no public company board or management experience. In fact, Mr. Vizi is the only nominee standing for election at the 2013 Annual Meeting who has never served on a public company's board of directors.
- Mr. Vizi is the only nominee standing for election at the 2013 Annual Meeting who has no experience overseeing the management of a public company.
- Mr. Vizi is the only nominee standing for election at the 2013 Annual Meeting who has no experience directly developing or implementing strategies to enhance long-term stockholder value.
- Mr. Vizi is the only nominee standing for election at the 2013 Annual Meeting who has no experience fulfilling the important fiduciary duties owed to stockholders by a director of a public company.
- Mr. Vizi's firm has entered into a contract pursuant to which Mr. Vizi is restricted from buying any RCM shares (he currently owns 1,000 RCM shares or 0.008% of RCM's issued and outstanding shares).
- Mr. Vizi's duties to his client, IRS Partners, would present a very significant conflict of interest if he were elected to the RCM Board.

To protect the value of their investment, the RCM Board strongly recommends that all stockholders vote for the RCM Board's highly qualified and experienced nominees –Michael E.S. Frankel and Robert B. Kerr – on the WHITE proxy card TODAY—by telephone, Internet, or by signing, dating and returning the WHITE proxy card.

Stockholders that need assistance in voting their shares or have any questions are urged to call RCM's proxy solicitor, Mackenzie Partners, Inc., at (800) 322-2885 (Toll Free) or at (212) 929-5500.
